Conclusion of the hearings on provisional measures

The Court ready to consider its decision

THE HAGUE, 12 May 1999. The public hearings concerning the requests for the indication of provisional measures submitted by the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (FRY) in the above-mentioned cases at the International Court of Justice (ICJ) were concluded today, enabling the Judges to start their deliberations.

In its requests, Yugoslavia asked the Court to order the States involved to "cease immediately [their] acts of use of force" and to "refrain from any act of threat or use of force" against the FRY.

At the opening of the hearings, on Monday 10 May 1999, five judges ad hoc took the oath (Article 31 of the Court's Statute provides that Parties which do not have any judge of their nationality on the Bench may appoint a judge ad hoc). They are Messrs. Milenko Kreća (Yugoslavia), Patrick Duinslaeger (Belgium), Marc Lalonde (Canada), Giorgio Gaja (Italy) and Santiago Torres Bernárdez (Spain).

The Court then heard the Parties. Yugoslavia, as the applicant State, spoke first for two hours in a common statement for all ten cases. It was followed by the respondent States in the English alphabetical order. Each State had one hour to submit its arguments. The first round of oral arguments was concluded on Tuesday 11 May 1999.

A second round of oral arguments was held today, Yugoslavia having one hour at its disposal and the respondent States 15 minutes each.

The Court's decision on the Yugoslav requests for provisional measures in the ten cases will be delivered in the coming weeks. It will be read at a public sitting on a date which will be announced in a forthcoming press release.

Yugoslavia filed its requests for the indication of provisional measures on 29 April 1999 when it instituted proceedings before the Court against the ten above-mentioned States, accusing them of bombing Yugoslav territory in violation of their obligation not to use force against another State (for further details, see Press Communiqué 99/17).
